

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

BOOK REVIEWS.

All book reviews are by the Editor-in-Chief unless otherwise expressly stated.

Annotated Cases American and English—Containing the Important Cases Selected from The Current American, Canadian, and English Reports. Thoroughly Annotated. Editors, William M. McKinney and H. Noyes Greene. Ann. Cas. 1918 B. Edward Thompson Company, Northport, L. I., N. Y. 1918. Bancroft Whitney Company, San Francisco, 1918. Price $5.00.

We find the present volume of unusual interest and full of live subjects. Numerous notes will be found upon the brand new question of the Sedition Law; and on page 1009 is a very able note on the Nature and Scope of War Power. Of equal value are the cases cited and the notes upon the Workman's Compensation Laws. These annotations practically amount to a text book and when taken in connection with the earlier notes in this valuable series are probably the most comprehensive treatment of the subject extant.

One peculiar advantage of this series of Annotated Cases is that the English cases are given, as well as the Canadian, and as the most significant phases in the Workman's Compensation Acts, around which most of the controversy centers, were taken literally from the English act, these decisions are of peculiar value.

Two Virginia cases are reported: Conrad vs. Ellison-Harvey Company, 120 Va. 458, and Virginia Railroad Company vs. Gorsuch, 120 Va. 453.

We really believe that this present volume is one of the most up-to-date and interesting volumes which has been issued in this series.